LABELSANYWHERE DESKTOP...

LabelsAnywhere™ Desktop (DT) is Colorflex's cost effective, Windows Desktop, network capable, demand print solution. LabelsAnywhere allows you to print Intaglio designs with any combination of variable COLOUR, variable TEXT, variable BARCODE, and with the new referenced image feature variable IMAGES/GRAPHICS like never before.
DESKTOP FUNCTIONALITY

LabelsAnywhere DT is designed with the well known LabelsAnywhere.com look, feel and functionality. But, specifically developed for those instances when a web-based print application is prohibited, an internet connection is not available, or a stand-alone version is just preferred.

- Standard Windows desktop application interface
- Installs as a stand-alone application
- Installs on a local machine
- Distributed on a standard CD
- Internet or phone activation
- Single/multiple user license availability
- Extensive easy to use help file

EASY AS 1-2-3

LabelsAnywhere DT is straightforward and easy to use. You begin printing any type of label in three simple steps.

Whether you print one label per day or thousands... LabelsAnywhere DT provides an easy and economical print-on-demand solution.
