

UK Familiarisation Course

- One Day
- One hour theory
- Five hours practical
- Car, van, LGV, Minibus, PCV

Location – anywhere in the UK or Ireland

No delegates – up to 10

In vehicle training ratio 1:1 or 2:1

This one day course is designed to ensure that delegates with little or limited experience of driving in the UK have the knowledge and basic driving skills to cope with UK conditions. One instructor can train up to a maximum of two people per day. We require a suitable vehicle for the training insured for delegates and instructors to drive. We can provide and insure a vehicle if required. Please call us for details.

09:00 Theory Session

Familiarity with driving RHD vehicle, parking and reversing

Demonstration drive by trainer, with commentary - variety of road types

Initial drive by each delegate

Feedback/debrief in initial drives

Alternate drives by each delegate on variety of road types with feedback from trainer.

Focus will be on any apparent weakness/risk shown by individuals who will have the opportunity to explore any issues/ questions they have.

16:00 Debrief on individual drives

Driver Reports

After the course each driver will receive a Certificate of Attendance and a full written report. If we identify any drivers who we feel would benefit from further help, their report is fast tracked and further training needs discussed. In extreme cases where we feel the driver lacks the basic skills, we may recommend that the driver takes a few standard L lessons with a local driving school in a dual controlled car
