

Introduction

IOSH Managing Safely in Aviation provides an excellent understanding of airside and landside health and safety management issues for people working in this highly regulated sector. Training employees with this unique, sector-specific, approved certificate assists employers, in complying with CAP642 and UK HSE legislative requirements.

Course Key Facts

Duration: Four days

Learning Methods

Virtual and In-company

The IOSH Managing Safely in Aviation course has a comprehensive syllabus designed to provide learners with the complete toolset to date.

There are nine topics that offer learners a professional understanding in managing safely whilst in the air. The topics are;

- 1: Introducing Managing Safely in Aviation
- 2: Investigating Accidents and Incidents
- 3: Human factors
- 4: Assessing Risk
- 5: Controlling Risk
- 6: Understanding Managers Responsibilities
- 7: Common hazards
- 8: Measuring performance

Assessment

There is a 45-minute multiple-choice test at the end of the course and a workplace health and safety risk assessment, which must be completed within two weeks to pass.

Who is the course for?

This course is suitable for staff in line management or supervisory roles working for companies involved in air and landside operations.

Benefits for Learners

The course provides learners with a comprehensive understanding on a number of essential areas. The course will offer learners:

- ▶ Introduction to Managing Safely in Aviation
- ▶ Professional education in health and safety responsibilities and accountability in aviation.
- ▶ Understanding how to assess and control hazards and risks effectively common to the aviation sector
- ▶ Walkthrough guide on how to conduct an accident and incident investigation
- ▶ Understanding on how to judge health and safety performance
- ▶ Understanding on how to protect the environment

Benefits for Employers

The IOSH Managing Safely in Aviation not only benefits individual learners but also helps employers in the following ways:

- ▶ Employers can be assured that their workforce remains vigilant with safe practices in the air.
- ▶ It assists employers in complying with the requirements of CAP642 and UK HSE legislative requirements and provides a clear understanding of the interface between HSE and CAA requirements.