conference badges

92 x 59mm

Perfect for corporate events, our easy to use identity badges can be used on many occasions where instant identification is required. The badges feature a dual fixing on the back, with crocodile clip or safety pin and are supplied with laser compatible inserts.

self assembly badges and fridge magnets

55mm

Great for schools, playgroups and nurseries, the 55mm self assembly badge comes with everything you need. Once the insert is personalised, just clip together front and back for a durable safety badge.

Also available with a magnet instead of a pin – great on fridges, filing cabinets or any metal surface.
