

Wrap up your skin for winter with Outback Organics Christmas Gift Set

It's this seasons essential stocking filler and the must have brand for 2012

Everyone knows the importance of using the most natural ingredients on their skin, and soothing, natural ingredients are key to the Outback Organics range.

We wanted to develop a range that was as natural and ethical outside the bottle as in, and that's what the Outback Organics range is all about. Our products are free from paraben, sodium lauryl sulphate, SLES, mineral oils and synthetic colourings. None of the products have been tested on animals and each is free from harsh synthetics or man-made chemicals.

Organic Tea Tree oil with its magical abundance of healing properties has been blended with carefully-selected and ethically-sourced exotic Australian fruits and plants such as macadamia oil, anisata, desert lime and bush mint.

Whether you want to wrap up your skin in a rich and creamy moisturiser this winter, or prepare your party feet for the festive season be sure to ask Santa to put Outback Organics in your stocking. Each Christmas Gift Box contains:
