Severn Sales widens their scope of supply

You can now find more items on the Severn Sales website than ever before.

In addition to the wealth of used items available from stock, we are currently adding a large number of new product lines to our website. This includes many items only available in the UK through Severn Sales.

Our NEW products division had a busy time last month at Achema, in Frankfurt, and brought home a whole selection of fresh ideas from overseas suppliers – now available for you! We'll be working with our suppliers to update our website - watch out for the special offers in the coming months.

However we constantly strive to improve. Is there anything you have sought in vain to find that we can source for your laboratory? Give us a call or drop us a line today - we'll be glad to hear from you!
