Shelving in Detail

A wide range of shelving is available to suit a variety of applications. Laminate and white powder coated universal steel shelves are used with bookend brackets. Aluminium and stainless steel shelves combine integral bookend brackets to hook directly onto the slotted uprights.

The standard width between each slotted upright is either 600mm or 750mm, with some products offering 350mm or 360mm. Where continuous shelving is required, Toprail pass-over brackets provide rigid support - details are shown on data sheet 3.2.

Laminate Shelves

Laminate shelves are white as standard with a PVC lip to the front edge. Special colours and materials (eg Trespa) are available to order in minimum quantities of 24.

One-Piece Shelves

One-piece white powder coated aluminium shelves are ideal for use in clinical areas where a high degree of hygiene is required. These shelves incorporate bookend brackets and simply slot directly into uprights. They are manufactured in 750mm, 600mm, 360mm and 350mm widths. The 360mm and 350mm width shelves make excellent pigeon holes or post trays when placed on top of one another.
