Poly Painting Station

Post Mounted (0209)

Post Mounted (0209)
With Transparent Panel

The Poly Painting Station will really inspire the imagination and creativity of children. The post mounted version offers the opportunity for children to paint what they see through a transparent polycarbonate panel. It could be the landscape, an object or another person. The wall mounted version consists of a dry wipe board instead of the transparent screen, offering an opaque painting surface. Once finished the panels can be wiped clean with a damp cloth.
